

Privacy Protection Policy

Significa Insurance Group, Inc., has implemented various privacy and security safeguards to ensure that all data collected via any mechanism is kept secure and confidential.

Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

The Corporation is the sole owner of all information collected. We only have access to the information that you voluntarily provide to us via direct contact from you. We will not disclose your information to an unauthorized individual.

All data collected is used internally for the sole purpose of providing health care insurance to our members. Only those employees that require access to specific member data in order to perform their job responsibilities will have access to such data.

If you have any questions, regarding this Privacy Policy, you can contact us at 1-866-262-5867 or via email at privacy@allonehealth.com.